

Making a New Friend

To make a new friend, follow these 5 steps. The way you choose to join in on a game can look friendly or unfriendly. If you act in a friendly way, others will more likely want you to join in.

Step One - Smile and say hello

Introduce yourself. The way you do this can look friendly or unfriendly. If you are friendly, others will want to be friends with you.

Step Two - Share common interests

Start a conversation with a new friend by asking about their interests and getting to know more about them.

Step Three - Listen carefully

It is important to listen to your friend when they are talking to you. By listening, you can ask more questions and keep the conversation going.

Step Four - Invite them to play.

Invite your new friend to join your game.

Step Five - Make time.

Making a friend takes time and effort.
